Thrillers and the Supernatural

What lies just beyond the dark? Tonight, Friday the 13th, SCFF will showcase films dealing with death and the supernatural. Following the films, will be a live panel discussion about the veil between reality and the fantastical lead by historian and writer Herb Boyd.

Ghosted

“Made in collaboration with former students of University of Alabama, GHOSTED is a short film set in Alabama that tells the story of a gas station attendant who is goaded by her best friend to take extreme measures to return a wallet to a customer.”

Director - Marquette Jones

Marquette Jones, right, works on the set of "Ghosted." (Photo by Angela "AJ" Evans)

Dead Mirror Suite

An Abstract Psychological Thriller detailing the journey of Norah Heart who finds herself trapped in a never ending nightmare after committing suicide. She now lingers in the afterlife searching for her final resting place. This surreal existentialist short art film.

Director - Ace Fillmore
Midnight Movie: Magnum Opus

In his quest for the perfect sculpture, aiming to reproduce the human body and especially the flesh, Slim, a sculptor, will go as far as kill to create the perfect exposure, the perfect mix between pulp and clay.

Director Biography - Myriam Khammassi

After starting a career in communication and webmarketing, I decided to follow my dreams and become a filmmaker. Writing and directing movies is like giving birth, it’s all about magic!